

Good News from Kenyan Kids!

School Break and Visitors from the USA

The August school break, lasting a full month, has extremely hot, dry weather. Not a drop of rain anywhere on Rusinga Island. We are so grateful for the new well, with water available all year now!

Visitor Bonnie at Safe Haven

Above: Visitor Bonnie with Manager Samson, the children, and Josephine (in green), who has completed her high school and continues her technical studies while volunteering at Safe Haven. Right: Children have special treat of mandazi and tea when visitors arrive.

FOOD! A joy!

Mwalimu Samwel

Mwalimu Josephine

Above: Josephine, who was sponsored for high school, volunteers at Safe Haven and is a great inspiration to the children. Left: Samwel now attends a local high school and volunteers with the children. Both he and Josephine work hard toward their goals.

Shaving enhances beauty

Where's the shade?!

Collins practicing Braille

Visitors saying goodbye

Top left: Little Felix gets his shave, while other children wait. Above: Manager Samson describes well project to visitors. Left: Collins reads his "Black Book," a totally black book in Braille, with English subtitles, a gift from Peace Corps friend Sajeena. Bottom Left: Our visitors Eve, Elijah, Linda (Wayondo Ecolodge), Gabe and Bonnie say goodbye. The kids always love visitors!

What's Next?

Fencing for Large Garden next to the new well.

Sponsorship Program – opportunity to make a difference for a child.

More on these coming up next time.

Thank you for all you do for the kids in Kenya!

Dave & Rebecca

Facebook: Rebecca Rowson    Email: Rebecca.Rowson@outlook.com

DONATE: RusingaIslandChildrensFund.org/contact.html    501(c)(3) charity

Home Address: 360 Skymont Drive, Holly Springs, NC 27540
Rusinga Island Children's Fund